

campuscambra

INTERCULTURAL COMMUNICATION SKILLS

Business English Training

Octubre 2021

Programa de Direcció i Formació especialitzada

Yes, we do Business
English!

Cambra de Comerç de Barcelona

It is an English-speaking language training focused on presentation skills with a Business goal.

This Business immersion training program is designed so that all professionals practise the learnt integrated techniques and strategies in the field of business, from creating a company to presenting it in a multicultural Business scenario, so each participant gets to feel & realise the difference it represents.

The main objective is to practise the speaking skill needed to become familiar with the English role any participant might be exposed to when (starting) working for any International company in Spain or abroad. All of us should be capable of expressing, developing ideas and making decisions using fluent English no matter whether it is your L1 (first language) or your L2 (foreign language).

METODOLOGIA

In-session teaching foundations:

- To use the active listening technique: Confirming understanding, checking and clarifying information.
- To become aware of functions of Business English core: making comparisons, describing trends, working on business cases.
- To learn by doing methodology "Practice makes perfect" using the TBL methodology: Teaching Based Learning.
- Formative assessment vs by end of each daily training session.
- To learn and apply the language communication techniques internationally.

Core Skills BUSINESS scenario:

- To participate in brainstorming and meetings.
- To present (new) business ideas.
- To learn and practise the active listening technique.
- To become aware of what intercultural communication concept is.
- To deal and negotiate in business scenarios.
- To select and activate the formal language approach.

Training scenarios:

- Work roles.
- Work scenarios.
- Culture differences learning.
- Intercultural communication.
- Communicating internationally.
- Working internationally.

OBJECTIUS

1. Learn and use the language skills needed to give a proficient presentation in English.
2. Learn to open up and mingle in English 100% assertively, formally and informally.
3. Learn to act professionally and deal with any international business English situation confidently.

DESTINATARIS

Sales & Market developers, Import & Export business.

PROFESSORAT

Elisabet Camprubí - Directora i professora de BECE - Global English Services

Catalina Sastre - Professora i traductora de BECE - Global English Services

Jorrit Castelein - International Business Developer

Eugene Scotcher - General Manager in American & Asian countries

Programa

Products & Services

Session based on a business presentation, the participant will design a company's product or service using the English key language provided to perform a business case role-play.

Trends & Markets

To explain your target by identifying and detailing the market aim for your product or service.

Pricing & Cost Accounting

To defend the product or service by becoming aware of the English language used when pricing, budgeting and presenting graphs in any business scenarios.

The process I & II

To become aware of what process and procedure are by using the needed language to meet the participant business goal and by describing the product or service in live.

Meetings and Sales

To identify the language needed to talk about market concepts, sales, distribution channels and logistics by performing a Business meeting speech.

Presentation & Intercultural communication

To learn about Intercultural communication dimensions and the strong connections at doing business with other cultures, where English and cultures mindset differences take place via role-play to foresee the encounter business issues.

Real business project presentation

Participants learn how to improve their English presentations by preparing their presentation from product to sales via putting into practice the learning gained during the week to meet a business presentation goal in front of an external businessman in live.

- Presentation skills
- Key language and register expected
- Pronunciation skills and interferences
- Presentation skills – sequences, connectors and audience attention

